

BRANIFF AIRWAYS FOUNDATION ACCEPTS PRESTIGIOUS AWARD TONIGHT - At the luxurious Carlisle Room at the newly restored Lone Star Gas Building in Downtown Dallas, Braniff Airways Foundation accepted the coveted Spirit of Preservation award at Preservation Dallas's 20th Annual Preservation Achievement Awards on Wednesday, May 15, 2019 at 600PM. The Foundation was noted for its continuing efforts in the preservation of the history and legacy of Braniff Airways and further commended for its reinstatement of the original Braniff companies, which has given Braniff the opportunity to continue forward with a new era of history and preservation.

Braniff Airways Foundation Founder and Chairman Ben Cass accepted the elegant engraved glass sculpture award from Preservation Dallas President Joanna Hampton. The beautiful award was made from 1/2 inch cut glass measuring 8 inches by 8 inches with a 2 inch by 8 inch glass base.

Mr. David Preziosi, Braniff Airways Foundation Board Member and Executive Director of Preservation Dallas MC's the Special Recognition Awards, which included the Spirit of Preservation Award. Also in attendance, was Braniff Airways Foundation Secretary and Treasurer and Board Member Collin Ice and Foundation Board Member and Vice President Howard Blouir.

The began at 630PM the awarding of the annual restoration projects in Dallas that will ensure the city's history will be preserved for future generations to admire and enjoy. During the second portion of the ceremony, the noted restoration and architecture firms that were honored for their exemplary preservation projects, which was followed by the Special Recognition Awards section.

The event ended at 730PM. At that point, the group of 300 moved upstairs to The Carlisle Room where refreshments and hors d' oeuvres were served.

Braniff Airways Foundation
Copyright 1983 2019

Photos: Braniff Airways Foundation
Braniff International Heritage Archives

